

COMMISSION RESUMES ON THURSDAY 1 DECEMBER 2011 AT 9.30 AM

JUSTICE COOPER:

5 Commissioner Fenwick is indisposed. He had difficulty overnight and needs to rest and so we are simply sitting this morning to adjourn the hearing. We only found out about it this morning, so I apologise for any inconvenience that is caused by people coming today in the expectation that they would be listening to the continuation of the proceeding, but that cannot occur.

We are going to resume the hearing on Monday of next week when we expect that the Commissioner will be all right, and another consequence of that is that in the circumstances we have decided that we should adjourn the hearing in relation to the Hotel Grand Chancellor, which was to follow the completion 15 of the hearing into the PGC failure, to a date in January.

The Hotel Grand Chancellor hearing will now proceed on 17 and 18 January next year, so once again I apologise for the circumstances. They are unavoidable and have had the result that we are now going to adjourn until 20 Monday next week at 10 o'clock.

COMMISSION ADJOURNS: 9.31 AM
