Hi Matt

Thanks for your email

Our first priority is to get the building structurally check – I am meeting with our structural engineers 2morrow to start that process

Once we know the full extent of the damage we will be in a better position to schedule and start the repair works

Chris,

I am just letting you know that the rent for 593b colombo street wont be coming out this month, we have only missed the rent once in the 10 years we have occupied this building, unfortunately the simple fact is that since the earthquake, there has been no business coming in. We have not made enough profit to cover our expenses, and I am writing this to let you know in advance what the situation is.

We are optimistic that as the city rebuilds we will see an increase in clientele, but it has been a very hard month for everyone.

Also where are we in regards to having the ceiling repaired? it is quite dangerous having loose plaster floating down from the ceiling, as we work in a sterile environment. There have been a couple of occasions where flakes have come down during the day, and it could possibly pose a health risk in an industry where we are required to take the utmost care against infection.

Regards

Matt Parkin

Hi Matt

We have been awaiting the structural engineers survey and recommendations to enable us to be in a position to establish what works are required to make the building re-tenantable and to gauge a timeframe those work are likely to take so we can advise those tenants and owners alike.

From the structural engineers report I received the other day it may be some time before the building will be able to be tenanted legally.

Can you please provide me with a copy of your lease so I can establish what we need to do next regarding that lease.

 Chris

If the Landlord would be obliged to expend an unreasonable amount then the Landlord may determine this lease and any dispute as to whether or not the amount is unreasonable shall be determined by arbitration. In the case of a multi tenancy building, the annual sum payable shall be assessed in respect of a fair proportion of the amount so expended.
- 21.3 The Landlord warrants that allowing the Premises to be open to members of the public and allowing the use of the Premises by members of the public at the Commencement Date will not be a breach of section 363 of the Building Act 2004. - 21.4 The Tenant, when undertaking any building work to the Premises, shall comply with all statutory requirements including the obtaining of building consents and code compliance certificates and shall not allow the Premises to be open to members of the public or allow use of the Premises by members of the public if that would be in breach of section 363 of the Building Act 2004.
- 21.5 During the Term and any renewal, the Landlord shall not give consent to or carry out any building work in any part of the Landlord's property which may cause the Tenant to be in breach of section 363 of the Building Act 2004 by allowing the Premises to be open to members of the public and allowing the use of the Premises by members of the public.

No Noxious Use

22.1 THE Tenant shall not:

- (c) use the premises or allow them to be used for any noisome noxious illegal or offensive trade or business; or
- (d) allow any act or thing to be done which may be or grow to be a nuisance disturbance or annoyance to the Landlord, other tenants of the property or any other person, and generally the Tenant shall conduct the Tenant's business upon the premises in a clean quiet and orderly manner free from damage nuisance disturbance or annoyance to any such persons but the carrying on by the Tenant in a reasonable manner of the business use or any use to which the Landlord has consented shall be deemed not to be a breach of this clause.

 - may render any increased or extra premium payable for any policy of insurance except where in circumstances in which any increased premium is payable the Tenant shall have first obtained the consent of the insurer of the premises and the Landlord and made payment to the insurer of the amount of any such increased or extra premium as may be payable but the carrying on by the Tenant in a reasonable manner of the business use or of any use to which the Landlord has consented shall be deemed not to be a breach of this clause:

In any case where in breach of this clause the Tenant has rendered any insurance less effective or void and the Landlord has suffered loss or damage thereby the Tenant shall forthwith compensate the Landlord in full for such loss or damage.

When Tenant to have benefit of Landlord's insurance

- 25.1 The Landlord will indemnify the Tenant for the cost of making good damage to the property or loss to the Landlord where the Tenant is obligated to pay for making good such damage or loss, to the extent that the Landlord is insured and the insurance moneys are not rendered irrecoverable in consequence of any act or default of the Tenant or those for whom the Tenant is responsible.

DAMAGE TO OR DESTRUCTION OF PREMISES

- 26.1 IF the premises or any portion of the building of which the premises may form part shall be destroyed or so damaged

Any termination pursuant to this clause shall be without prejudice to the rights of either party against the other.

THEN the Landlord shall with all reasonable speed expend all the insurance moneys received by the Landlord in respect of such damage towards repairing such damage or reinstating the premises and/or the building but the Landlord shall not be liable to expend any sum of money greater than the amount of the insurance money received.

- 27.2 Any repair or reinstatement may be carried out by the Landlord using such materials and form of construction and according to such plan as the Landlord thinks fit and shall be sufficient so long as it is reasonably adequate for the Tenant's occupation and use of the premises.
- 27.3 Until the completion of the repairs or reinstatement a fair proportion of the rent and outgoings shall cease to be payable as from the date of damage.
- 27.4 If any necessary permit or consent shall not be obtainable or the insurance moneys received by the Landlord shall be inadequate for the repair or reinstatement then the term shall at once terminate but without prejudice to the rights of either party against the other.

- (e) if the Tenant shall suffer distress or execution to issue against the Tenant's property goods or effects under any judgment against the Tenant in any Court for a sum in excess of five thousand dollars ($5,000); and the term shall terminate on such re-entry but without prejudice to the rights of either party against the other.

Essentiality of Payments

30.1 FAILURE to pay rent or other moneys payable hereunder on the due date shall be a breach going to the essence of the Tenant's obligations under the Lease. The Tenant shall compensate the Landlord and the Landlord shall be entitled to recover damages from the Tenant for such breach. Such entitlement shall subsist notwithstanding any determination of the lease and shall be in addition to any other right or remedy which the Landlord may have.

30.2 THE acceptance by the Landlord of arrears of rent or other moneys shall not constitute a waiver of the essentiality of the Tenant's continuing obligation to pay rent and other moneys.

Repudiation

31.1 THE Tenant shall compensate the Landlord and the Landlord shall be entitled to recover damages for any loss or damage suffered by reason of any acts or omissions of the Tenant constituting a repudiation of the lease or the Tenant's obligations under the lease. Such entitlement shall subsist notwithstanding any determination of the lease and shall be in addition to any other right or remedy which the Landlord may have.

REMOVAL OF TENANT'S FIXTURES, FITTINGS AND CHATTELS

32.1 THE Tenant may at any time before and will if required by the Landlord at the end or earlier termination of the term remove all the Tenant's fixtures, fittings and chattels and make good at the Tenant's own expense all resulting damage and if not removed within 7 days after the date of termination ownership of the fixtures fittings and chattels may at the Landlord's election pass to the Landlord or the Landlord may in a proper and workmanlike manner remove the same from the premises and forward them to a refuse collection centre.

Chris,

hey mate have you heard anything more about the building report ? we still have some ceiling falling down with all these aftershocks, a piece nearly hit somebody last week when it dislodged and came down. there is not a lot of clientele coming in, and to be honest it makes me nervous bringing the general public into the studio when you still haven't confirmed whether the building has been deemed safe or not. Im still waiting to hear what it is you want to do in regards to our repairs, lease etc.

Hi Matt

The structural engineers have been working away looking at the whole rebuilding/repair work required as well as having to build into that the requirement to earthquake strengthen to 67% of the building code – not an easy thing to do.

I had managed to get the owners to agree to reduce the rent by 30% however we were still in negotiation over management / insurance works etc and today I've received an email advising that they are want to hold off on the repairs and to look after the property themselves.

They are going to contact me this week to discuss this.

For your information - the current situation with your lease is that there hasn't been any formal renewal of your lease and therefore it is on a month by month basis.

If you need to move then all you need to do is give them one calendar months notice in writing – i.e. you can give them notice prior to 31 Jan to vacate 28th Feb

If you decide that you'd be better off in alternative premises let me know and I'll see if one of our leasing agents can find you something suitable.

 Chris

Hi Matt

The 67% is a council wish to get building seismic strengthening too in relation to the code all new buildings need to be built to

I've finally received some repair plans which I've forwarded on to a contractor to price – these plans include repairs required now so we can re-tenant the empty spaces as well as works required to meet the councils 67% seismic requirement.

Once I have some costs it'll be up to the owners to decide what they're going to do

Keep in touch and as soon as I know anymore I'll let you know
