

The Commission had a fully interactive evidence-quality 3D model of the CTV building created for the CTV hearing. It showed the interior and exterior of the building from various vantage points as well as details of the design and construction.

The model can be seen in use in the CTV hearing videos.
It has been used in the hearing on 25 June 2012.